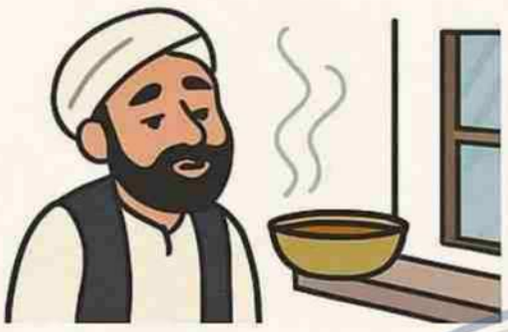
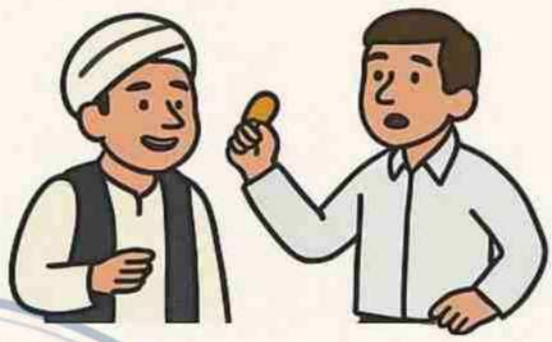
Goha's Story

The Beginning



Goha was hungry.
He smelled soup.

The Middle



Goha shook his coins.
The owner saw him.

The End

Goha shared the soup with the owner

The Lesson

Be kind to others.

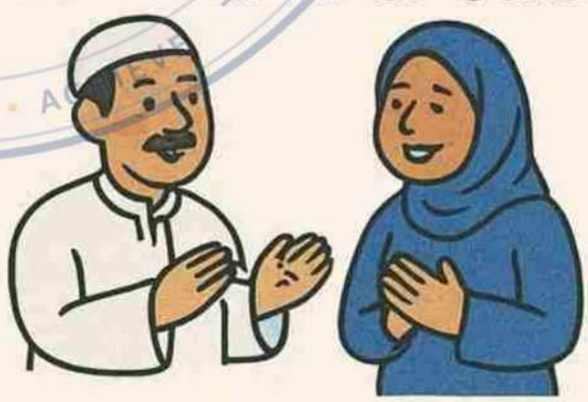
My Culture

Egypt has two main regions: the Delta and Upper Egypt.

People in theDelta grow rice and make crafts.

Families sing songs and tell old stories and love er culture.

In Upper Egypt, they make pottery and weave carpets.



When everyone helps, the streets become clean and safe.

Taking Care of Animals

Zoo animals need space, food, and care from vets

Wild animals need clean water and safe homes.

Pets need food, clean places, and exercise

When we care for anima-ls, we make the world better.

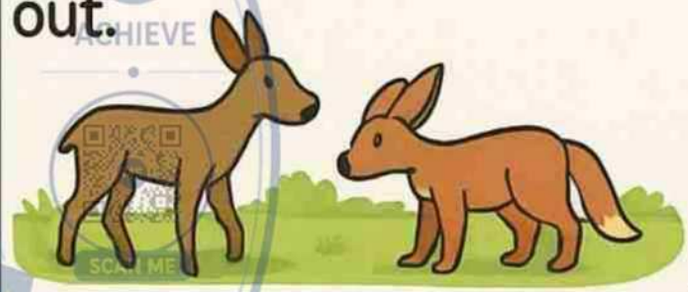
Story You Read

Once there was an old lion who couldn't hunt.

He tricked animals by pretending to be sick. Many animals went into his cave but didn't come out.



Story You Read

A clever fox saw the footprints outside the cave.

The fox learned from others' mistakes and stayed safe.

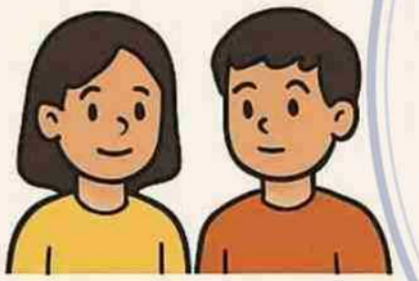
Learning from Others' Mistakes

It is important to learn from the mistakes of others.



In the story, the fox saw that other animals went into the lion's cave and didn't come out.

He didn't make the same mistake, so he stayed safe.

Learning from others helps us avoid problems and be wiser.

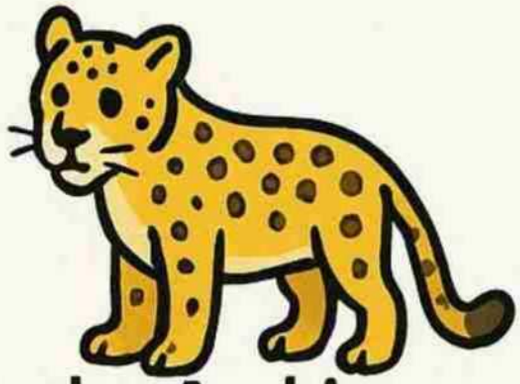
Protecting Endangered Animals



We must protect endangered animals.

In Egypt, the Arabian Leopard and the Dugong are in great danger.

People build homes in their habitats and pollute the land and sea.

We can help by keeping the environment clean and teaching others about these

If we act now, we can save their lives.
